Moodboard & Visual Inspiration

Tara's visual world is a blend of emotional depth and modern clarity. The brand draws inspiration from natural textures, calming tones, and warm, authentic moments.

Images should reflect themes of self-growth, joy, softness, and grounded femininity — without being overly staged or glossy.

Visual Tone & Style – Do’s & Don’ts

Tara’s visuals should feel real, reflective, and uplifting — never forced or overly polished. Designs should inspire calm, clarity, and connection.

DO	DON’T
Use soft, natural lighting and warm, earthy tones	Avoid harsh lighting or overly saturated colors
Choose authentic, emotional imagery (smiles, journaling, real moments)	Don’t use overly posed or stocky, generic photos
Pair elegant serif fonts with clean sans-serif for contrast	Avoid overly decorative or novelty fonts
Stick to the approved color palette with thoughtful contrast	Don’t use neon or trendy colors that clash with the brand
Keep the design minimal, calm, and emotionally grounded	Avoid cluttered, chaotic, or overly corporate layouts
Highlight themes of self-growth, inner peace, and modern femininity	Don’t use clichés like overly pink, glittery, or overly “girly” styles
